WILL START CAMPAIGN TO GET
SIGNERS TO OPTION PETITION"Dry" Workers Expect to Make a Whirlwind Canvass of Rushville Within Next Week.*WISH TO GET 366 SIGNATURES*Plan to Present Petition to Commissioners at the First Meeting of Next Month.*WILL BE HELD MONDAY, FEB. 6*Committee in Charge of Campaign is Made up of Two Members of Each Church.*Petition For Local Option Election.*To the Board of Commissioners of the county of Rush, State of Indiana:

We, the undersigned, legal voters of the City of Rushville, Rush county, Indiana, would respectfully petition that an election be held to determine whether the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall be prohibited in said City of Rushville, Indiana.

The above is the form and wording of the petition which will be placed in the hands of the committee made up of a committee of two, appointed from each church, which will be circulated at once in order to get the required number of signatures so that the commissioners may be petitioned to order an election under the Proctor bill, which will become a bill when the Governor signs it. The "dry" workers plan to make a whirlwind campaign as it will be necessary to get the signatures in a week in order to present the petition to the commissioners at their first meeting next month, which will be held one week from next Monday.

The petitions were all drawn up this afternoon and one will be placed in the hands of each member of the committee at once. The campaign for the signers will be started promptly Monday morning and it is generally believed by the "dry" workers that it will be only a few days before the number, required by law, twenty per cent of the voters in Rushville, can be obtained. They hope to meet with success and believe that they are assured of such before they begin the campaign.

Twenty per cent of the voters in Rushville township, with the vote for the secretary of State at the last general election, taken as a basis, is approximately 366. That is the number which the workers will attempt to get within the week. It is necessary to get only twenty percent of the voters in Rushville, but they have no way of determining the exact number of voters in the city since some of the precincts extend outside of the corporation line and into the township. The last general election vote for secretary of State was 1829, Republican, 1012; Democrat, 790; Prohibitionist, 20; Socialist, 6; and Socialistic Labor 1.

It is necessary for an election to be held in the city and one in the territory outside the city limits in Rushville township in order to exclude saloons from the whole township. The law provides that the incorporated city, the township and the territory outside the incorporated city shall be the unit instead of the county, which has been the unit.
The "dry" workers have made no arrangement to hold an election in the territory in Rushville township outside the city limits and believe they should not face a problem until they are compelled to do so. It is possible for a saloon to be started on the outskirts of the city just over the corporation line after February 27, and in that case it would be necessary to vote that part "dry" if it be possible. The problem which would worry the workers in that event would be difficult to get a number equal to twenty per cent of the voters of the township at the last general election from the territory outside the city.

The men in charge of the campaign expect to carry it through in whirlwind fashion next week, so that they can get the required number in time to file the petition with the commissioners by Monday, February 6.
It will be necessary to have the petitions on file then in order to get the commissioners to call an election before their first meeting in March, before which time it will be impossible for a man to petition for a saloon license.

The names of the whole committee, made up of two men from each church, will be published Monday.
The appointments were almost complete this afternoon, but a few vacancies were yet to be filled. The committee will be in working order Monday and ready to take signatures.

BROUGHT GOOD PRICES.

A large crowd was in attendance at the third combination sale held today at the Davis sale barn. All the stock sold at good prices, one team of draft mares bringing $180 apiece. Most of the stock went to buyers from this county, very few foreign buyers being present.

FUNERAL WAS HELD TODAY

Remains of John Copple Laid to Rest in Shelbyville.

The funeral services of John Cop-ple, father of Henry Copple of this county, who died yesterday at the home of his daughter in Shelbyville, were held this afternoon at two o'clock. Mr. Copple was 77 years old and was at one time a well known farmer of Shelby county. He moved to that city several years ago and had been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Cassie Ash since that time. A widow and eight children survive.

DISTRIBUTE FIRST PLUM."

The first "plum" that ever came to the Daily Republican was taken to the postoffice this afternoon and will be mailed out over the rural routes in Rush county in small bunches Monday morning. The subscribers will get the "seed."
Every subscriber to the Daily Republican, who lives on a rural route will receive a package of seeds, through the courtesy of Congressman W. O. Barnard of this district, who is allowed a certain portion by the government every year to give, free of charge, to his patrons. The packages contain a varied selection of seeds for garden planting, which time is fast approaching.

SEND WARNING
AGAINST FORGERChief Postoffice Inspector Orders Postmaster Frazee to be on Lookout For Swindler.*HAS WORKED CLEVER SCHEME*Passed as "Inspector of Supplies" at Edwards, Ind., And Carried Off Money Orders.

Postmaster Charles A. Frazee is in receipt of a letter from the Chief Inspector to be on the lookout for money orders supposed to be drawn at Edwards, Indiana, Nos. 11967 to 12000, inclusive. These orders together with a money order stamp were stolen by a man claiming to be an "Inspector of Supplies."

His identification was a letter presumably written by the Chief Inspector at Washington, D. C., but which was a forgery. The man is about 5 feet, 11 inches tall, dark hair and eyes, smooth face and a smooth talker, well versed in postal affairs.
He will probably fill in the orders for large amounts and try to cash them at stores, by making a small purchase and securing the balance in cash.

He visited the office on the 21st of January with "forged credentials," authorizing him to examine the supplies of the office. The unsuspecting postmaster, supposing the authority was genuine, permitted the examination. Among the supplies condemned was the M. O. B. or money order stamps which he took to replace with a new one.

After his departure the postmaster discovered that his money order blanks, numbered from 11,968 to 12,- 000, were missing. The government got the "fraud order" out at once, but the presumption is that the
"fraud inspector" worked rapidly.
He had only to forge the name of the postmaster of Edwards, designate amounts, office at where payable, stamp it with his "condemned" stamp and draw the money. He, no doubt, got a good sum that will develop later.

There is an argument for returning to the old form of money orders, where an advice had to be sent from the postmaster issuing to the postoffice on which the order was issued.
The new forms are getting a "re-lapse" on usefulness at a very early date.

VISIT THE LEGISLATURE

Party of Manilla High School Pupils Enjoy Trip.

A party of Manilla high school students went to Indianapolis yesterday by way of Shelbyville, where they visited both the senate and the House. The members of the party included Prof. L. C. Mushrush and Earl Mahan, Albert Cotton, Joe Cotton, Esta Thobald, Fred Shelton, Ralph Fox, Clifford Haehl, Glenn
Carr and Ernest Halterman. John F. Burd and Jesse Strode were also in the party.

FAYETTE IS "WET."

Fayette county, after a dry period of less than two years, has now become "automatically" wet since last Wednesday. The new condition of affairs is caused by the new city and township local option measure passed by the legislature.

NAME NEW HEAD
FOR S. & S. O. HOMEP. P. Stultz, a Former Educator, is Chosen Superintendent of Knightstown Institution.*HE SUCCEEDS DR. W. T. STOTT*Present Head Has Resigned, it to Take Effect July 1—Trustees Meet.

P. P. Stultz, former superintendent of the schools at Rising Sun, Jeffersonville and Mt. Vernon, was elected superintendent of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home at Knights-town yesterday by the board of trustees of the institution to succeed Dr.
W. T. Stott, whose resignation becomes effective July 1. The meeting of the board of trustees was held at the Denison Hotel in Indianapolis, according to a dispatch.

Governor Marshall did not know yesterday that a new superintendent was to be elected until the board of trustees appeared in his office, with the announcement that Dr. Stott's successor had been selected. He was gratified that the board had met, named the superintendent and thus avoided a contest for the place.

Mr. Stultz, who is 64 years old, has had thirty-nine years' experience as a teacher. He is a graduate of the Lebanon Normal School at Lebanon, Ohio. He was a private in the Sixtieth and the One Hundred and Seventeenth Ohio Civil war regiments.

Dr. Stott resigned Dec. 17, 1910, but the board of trustees induced him to remain at the institution until the close of the present school year. He will devote the remainder of his life to theological writing. The trustees of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home are Luther Short, Franklin Ferdinand Boltz, Bluffton; Daniel F.
Mustard, Anderson, and Mrs. Julia
A. Conklin, Westfield.

SEQUEL TO CRAWLEY SNAKE STORY IS FOUND AND WHAT'S THE ANSWER?Woman Who Contemplated Residing in Remodeled Home, Dreams of Terrible, Creeping Reptiles.*EVIDENCE IS BEFORE JURY

The sequel to the famous Crawley snake story has been found, or in other words, the reason, why and wherefore. The joke is on the joker, the one who rented the house, the people who have read the story and, in fact, it is just one long continuation of jokes, which threatens to hold the marathon record for long distant affairs of the sort.

To begin with the beginning, it became generally known that John Crawley had found a rattle snake in his house in North Morgan street, which was being repaired, preparatory to the entrance of a family.
John Crawley saw nothing but the skin and he believed that the terrible reptile had been discovered on his ground. He rehearsed the story to his friends and the peculiar part of it is, they all believed it. Next he received word, that his renters had the Falmouth M. E. church, conducted by the same men who so recently stirred up Glenwood in a long protracted meeting there. The Rev. A.

H. Baker, who preaches has attracted large crowds every evening since the meeting has been held. The subject for the Sunday morning service will be, "Keep in the Middle of the Road." Sunday afternoon the meeting is for men only, subject "Something That is Not Known to Every Man and Boy, But Should be Known by All." Sunday night, "The Greatest of Subjects the World Has Ever Known."

REVIEW CASE OF
TWO YEARS PASTMinnie Seoville of Knightstown is Fined $100 For Driving Auto
Over Buggy.*HAVE HELD THREE TRIALS

Minnie Seoville of Knightstown was found guilty by a jury in the Hancock circuit court in Greenfield Friday of assault and battery and was fined $100. The jury was out but a few minutes in making their verdict. The defendant in 1909 was driving her automobile on the National road, east and ran the machine into and over a rig in which Mrs. Otto Parish and another lady were riding, it is said.

The rig was upset and the women slightly hurt. The automobile went on to Charlottesville, where it was stopped by Constable James Kirkpatrick, by a truck across the road.

The case was tried in the mayor's court and the defendant found guilty.
It was later tried in the circuit court and the jury disagreed. This was the third trial of the case.

SPARKS RULES
IN CITY'S FAVORFormer Circuit Court Judge of This City Makes Finding For Richmond.*WAS HEARD AT GREENFIELD*Evidence of Many Former City Officials is Admitted Over the Plaintiff's Protest.

Richmond is rejoicing over a partial victory claimed to have been gained by a ruling of Will Sparks of this city, special judge in the case of Fremont Clifford against the city of Richmond. The Palladium says:

"With a ruling greatly in favor of the city council for the city of Richmond, including attorneys who formerly were and are now interested in the case, claim that the city's prospects for victory are very bright.

"Evidence in the case was heard at Greenfield before Special Judge Sparks Monday, the case being venued from the circuit court of Wayne county after the supreme court had sent the case back to the lower court for a re-trial. It was in the hearing on Monday that the important ruling in favor of the city was made.

"Counsel for Clifford sought to exclude certain testimony by former city officials, which the city regarded essential to its case.

By the decision of Judge Sparks this point of the prosecution was overruled and the testimony of former Councilman B. A. Kennepohl, David Whelan and John H. Meerhoff, members of the finance committee of council in 1901, Gibson Scott, city treasurer, at that time, Oliver Leftwich, an assessor then, and Alonzo Marshall county auditor at that time, was given. That which the late A. G.
Compton gave in the former trial was permitted to be made a part of the present hearing. The late Mr.
Compton was county assessor at the same time the ferret served Wayne county.

"Clifford maintains that he is entitled to about a thousand dollars commission from the city on taxes paid in on sequestered property, which he discovered. Counsel for the city from the first contested the allowance of this claim and the case is built about this point.

COMPLAIN OF THEIR RECORD

Milroy Avers That Town's Streets Should be Repaired.

The rain of the last few days has made the condition of Main street horrible, says the Milroy Press.
There is not a decent crossing on that street and at the railroad water is standing a foot or more in depth.
The street is in worse condition than before it was piked. It seems to us that the commissioners ought to fix this street as it belongs to the county. If they refuse, there is a way of compelling the work done.

WILL PREACH HERE.

L. E. Murray of Indianapolis, corresponding secretary of the State missions, will preach both morning and evening at the Main Street Christian church.

HELD "EXAMS."

The first teachers' examination for the year was held today by County Superintendent C. M. George. A large number of teachers took the test. Eight examinations are held during the year.

MASSACHUSETTS LEADS WORLD IN SUGAR HOLDINGS.

Company Statement Just Issued Shows Wide Distribution of Stock Here and Abroad.

19,359 HOLDERS LISTED.

New York, Jan. 28.—For the first time in its history the American Sugar Refining company has issued an official statement that reveals the remarkably wide distribution of its stock, and which at the same time indicates very clearly that the company is not, as has been supposed, owned by a few men controlling the bulk of the shares.

There are 9,019 holders of common stock and 10,340 represented in the preferred list. In Massachusetts there are 6,043 individuals who own 273,592 shares of common stock and 6,221 who are the holders of 216,332 shares of the preferred variety, which, taken at the par value of $100, foot up to an investment of $48,902,400. The New York representation comprises 892 persons who hold 94,967 shares of common and 1,594 who own 132,628 of preferred, both amounting to the neat sum of $22,759,500.

The New Hampshire holdings run to 13,467 of common and 14,050 of preferred owned respectively by 603 and 1,318 persons representing $2,751,700 in stock. Other New England holdings are: Maine, $1,640,500; Vermont, $743,200; Rhode Island, $1,232,300; Connecticut, $1,544,900. Thus it is seen that of the total stock holdings more than one-half, or 569,054 shares, are owned in New England, representing $56,906,400.

The states that follow the New England group in rank are: New Jersey, $22 stockholders, with a total holding of $1,268,500; Pennsylvania, 312 stockholders, $4,851,100; Louisiana, 46 stockholders, $548,300; Ohio, 169 stockholders, $773,300; Illinois, 86 persons, value $328,400; Michigan, with 38 individuals, $106,600; Missouri, 55 shareholders, $329,900; Virginia, 23 stockholders, $102,200; North Carolina, 13 stockholders, $84,900; Colorado, 13 stockholders, $74,400; California, 76 stockholders, $225,200; and District of Columbia, 61 stockholders, $230,400.

THE SENATE IS A WEE BIT WORRIT

Public Document Attacks Three of Its Members

HORROR FOLLOWS DISCOVERY

One is Referred to as a Notorious Demagogue, Another as a Devotee of Populism, and Another as Having Debauched the Electorate—Under Leave to Print License, Senator Gallinger Puts His Foot in It.

Washington, Jan. 28.—When the fact became known that three members of the senate are fiercely denounced in a public document that has just come from the public printer and which was published at the request of a senator, there was considerable commotion in that body.

The senators stigmatized in this government publication are not mentioned by name, but their identity is apparent. One is referred to as "a notorious demagogue," another as "a devotee of the vagaries of populism," and a third "as a citizen who is distinguished only for his riches and the generosity with which he debauched the electorate."

The strictures upon the senators are contained in a speech delivered by Albert A. Daub before the Maryland Bar association in the course of a discussion of the election of United States senators. Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire is responsible for the publication of the speech as a public document, and it is said that he was unconscious of the fact that it contained any reference to the three senators when he obtained the consent of the senate for the publication.

If Senator Gallinger does not ask for the recall of the speech and the destruction of the documents already in print, it is likely that one of the three senators involved will bring the matter to the attention of the senate.

Two years ago Senator Foraker of Ohio, at the suggestion of a friend, obtained the consent of the senate to publish as a document a speech containing a bitter attack upon Vice President Fairbanks. This was not known until after the publication of the document, when Senator Foraker apologized to the senate, explaining that he had been imposed upon.

TROUBLE BREWING

Peru and Ecuador Seem to Be at the Parting of the Ways.

Lima, Peru, Jan. 28.—There is considerable alarm over a fresh encounter between Peruvian and Ecuadorian troops on the border and a secret conference here between the representatives of Peru and Ecuador and the ministers of the three mediating powers—the United States, Brazil and Argentina—who are trying to solve the boundary trouble without bloodshed. The latest encounter took place at Zarumilla. As soon as the report of the fighting was confirmed the Ecuadorian minister called at the foreign office and had a long conference with the Peruvian minister of foreign affairs. Later on the diplomatic representatives of the three mediating powers had an audience with the minister of foreign affairs. No information was given out as to what was said or done at these conferences, but the cruiser Grau sailed at midnight with 200 infantrymen to re-enforce the Peruvian frontier guard.

A BOY AND A GUN

Terre Haute Woman Killed by Bullet From Son's Flobert.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 28.—Mrs. Josephine Bell, aged fifty-two, was shot and killed in her home here and her fifteen-year-old son is being held by the police for examination. The bullet which caused the woman's death was from a small flobert rifle. The lad and his mother were the only persons in the house. When taken into custody he said the gun was discharged by falling on the floor. He collapsed after the tragedy and his condition became so serious that he was placed under a physician's care.

Poison Was in Child's Reach.

Worthington, Ind., Jan. 28.—A little son of Henry Holley, who lives west of here, is dead from drinking carbolic acid. The bottle had been left within the child's reach and he drank the contents. He died in great agony.

Shall We Rejoice

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

AMERICAN FARMERS USED AS CATSPAWS

Shrewd Plan of German Potash Trust to Pull Its Chestnuts Out of the Fire.

How American Farming Interests Are Affected In the Controversy Between Washington and Berlin.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Foreign attempts to influence American legislation have often been alleged, but never proved beyond reasonable doubt until now. During the past week copies of circular letters to farmers of the United States have been received in Washington and called to the attention of congress. These seemed to show the existence of a concerted plan on the part of German potash interests to influence our legislators against the American companies that complain of discrimination against them by the new German potash law, aimed directly at them.

These letters are frankly signed by the German Kali works and are addressed to farmers generally in the United States asking them to write to their congressmen and urge upon them to support the German contentions against the Americans. Lest the farmer should make a mistake and support the contentions of his own country a copy of the letter that he should send to his congressman is inclosed, type-written and ready for his signature. The letter so to be signed closes with an urgent appeal to the congressman addressed not to allow President Taft to attempt to bring Germany to terms by applying the maximum tariff as provided by the Payne-Aldrich bill for such a contingency.

Trust Caught Napping.

The simple facts in the case are that in July, 1909, a number of American fertilizer manufacturers purchased a very large tonnage of potash salts for use in American fertilizers from independent potash mines in Germany. These contracts are made at prices considerably under those which had ruled up to that date under the domination of the German potash syndicate. The saving to Americans amounted in the aggregate to about $4,000,000 per year.

No sooner had it become known that the German trust had been caught napping than tremendous pressure was brought to bear by the German trust magnates to compel these buyers to give up their contracts and buy from the syndicate. Upon refusal to do so government action was threatened that would more than offset the advantages gained by the Americans.

These threats were carried into effect by a law introduced into the bundsrath in December, 1909. This was used by the German syndicate as a weapon in an attempt to coerce the American buyers into a settlement whereby the syndicate prices could not only be re-established but advanced in the United States. At the protest of the United States department of state this law was withdrawn by Germany, and immediately thereafter the commercial treaty between the two countries was consummated, whereby Germany was granted the minimum American tariff.

Quick Reprisal Made.

Three months later the German reichstag passed the present potash law whereby all the mines which exceed their allotments (distributed under this law by the government) are obliged to pay a penalty tax for such overproduction equivalent to $22 per ton on muriate of potash. The price of this article stated in the American contracts is but $15 per ton at the mines. When this law was passed the German government had the American contracts in its possession and knew that this penalty tax would fall only upon the mines holding the American contracts, as these mines had sold their entire output to the Americans. As citizens of no other country held these contracts the law was aimed specifically and exclusively at American interests and in consequence constitutes a clear discrimination against the United States.

An effort has been made to undersell the Americans in their own market with all the advantages on the side of the Germans because of this law. This has been met by a flat refusal on the part of the American contract holders to be undersold in their own market, and they have consequently met the lowest price made by the German agents even though at a loss. The cost of potash to the American buyers has been $15 per ton at the mines plus $5 per ton transport.

tation to the United States and the arbitrarily assessed tax of $22 per ton to be paid to the German government. The Germans do not have to pay such a tax and are offering potash in this country at $36 per ton, or about $6 per ton less than it actually costs the American buyers. This stand of the American buyers makes it impossible, so long as they maintain their position, for the German syndicate to create a monopoly in this country and thus to fix any price that it desires.

Weak Heart

Many people suffer from weak hearts. They may experience shortness of breath on exertion, pain over the heart, or dizzy feelings, oppressed breathing after meals or their eyes become blurred, their heart is not sufficiently strong to pump blood to the extremities, and they have cold hands and feet, or poor appetite because of weakened blood supply to the stomach. A heart tonic and alternative should be taken which has no bad after-effect. Such is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which contains no dangerous narcotics nor alcohol.

The ingredients, as attested under oath, are Stone root (Collinsonia Canadensis), Bloodroot (Sanguinaria Canadensis), Golden Seal root (Hydrastis Canadensis), Queen's root (Silene Siliatica), Black Cherrybark (Prunus Virginiana), Mandrake root (Podophyllum Peltatum), with triple refined glycerine, prepared in a scientific laboratory in a way that no druggist could imitate.

This tonic contains no alcohol to shrink up the red blood corpuscles; but, on the other hand, it increases their number and they become round and healthy. It helps the human system in the constant manufacture of rich, red blood. It helps the stomach to assimilate or take up the proper elements from the food, thereby helping digestion and curing dyspepsia, heart-burn and many uncomfortable symptoms, stops excessive tissue waste in convalescence from fevers; for the run-down, anemic, thin-blooded people, the "Discovery" is refreshing and vitalizing. Stick to this safe and sane remedy, and refuse all "just as good" medicines offered by the druggist who is looking for a larger profit. Nothing but Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do you half as much good.

Relates Incidents of Trip to Lake Okeechohee

George Guffin, of Rush County, Now in Southland, Writes with Characteristic Style of Delightful Cruise and Many Enticing Features of Sunny Florida

Knowing some of our friends who read the Republican would be interested in hearing from this section of Florida, I will try to give an account of a recent trip from Ft. Myers to Lake Okeechohee and return.

Accompanied by my wife and daughter, several gentlemen from different northern states, Captain G. G. Stroop and wife of Washington, D. C., we set sail on our journey in Captain Stroop's private launch, the Dixie. She was a pretty thirty-six foot cabin-launch, completely furnished and provisioned for our entire three hundred and fifty mile trip. Young Hawley Bryant, a pilot celebrated for his skill in making the course through these jetties, oyster-beds and coral reefs and Harry Loy, Captain of the Spanish-American War acting as chef make the Dixie the queen of the Ft. Myers fleet this season.

The object of this trip was to see with our own eyes what the state of Florida was doing in dredging the canals between rivers, small lakes and Lake Okeechohee to connect the Gulf of Mexico with the Atlantic Ocean. Truly it is a wonderful undertaking, and will in a few months be completed.

It furnishes them an outlet for the water of Lake Okeechohee and also drains the everglades, thereby reclaiming thousands of acres of valuable land.

Leaving Ft. Myers at sunrise we made our way up the Caloosahatchee River which is two miles wide and shallow but grows more narrow and much deeper toward its source.

It is celebrated for its crooked channel and picturesque banks which are covered with splendid orange and grape fruit groves, stately palmettos, huge ferns, cabbage palms, and cypress trees.

All these filled with singing birds of varying colors and sizes seemed a paradise. After passing several towns, very small ones, our first stop was made at Labelle, the largest town on the river above Ft. Myers. I have learned one of Rushville's fellow townsmen owns a large tract of land here which will no doubt be valuable at no distant day, as it is very pretty and the country fast settling up.

Cruising on we reached our first canal and soon came upon the site of Citrus Center, a town-to-be, a very large hotel marking the place and accommodating the land seekers, who are flocking in by the hundreds and buying up the land. Already one thousand town lots have been sold and much surrounding territory in farms of all sizes mostly on installment plan and some few homestead. We did not stop to purchase.

Running out of this canal we crossed Lake Hiopochee, seven miles into another canal. Near its mouth we poked the bar of our boat in a cross canal so other boats could pass us and then had a good hot supper served; and waited for the moon to rise that we might see Okeechohee at its best.

Soon we were rewarded, and surely no sunset or moon-rise can surpass those of Florida. We found the water rather rough on the lake—an afterthought of a storm there earlier in the day. Even though the spray dashed high against our windows all proved good sailors; sang songs and told stories as we rolled along in the perfect summer moonlight.

Near midnight, we arrived at the South Canal and stopped there at a large hotel, well furnished, owned by a land company.

Nobody there but the caretaker. Soon we were all snoozing in the net-covered beds while Mr. Mosquito sang his songs in loud tones but could not reach us. The pilot had said there was not a "single" mosquito near there but now explained they were all married and had millions of sons and daughters.

The next morning we were up early; caught a dozen fish in almost as many minutes and soon had them on the breakfast table. Then we started on the most eventful day of all our trip.

First passed on down South Canal to see the suction dredge cutting its way to the Atlantic. It was a sight to see a stream of dirt pouring from a pipe twenty inches in diameter making a levee on either side of this eighty-foot canal. When these canals are completed in a few months they are expected to lower the water of the lake and also drain the surrounding everglades.

If this succeeds as it looks to do, thousands of acres of the richest land in the world will be restored to agriculture. The soil, said to be from eight to twenty feet deep, is as black as Egyptian darkness or the Rushville blackbirds.

Some enterprising Yankee is trying to organize a company to ship it as fertilizer, so rich is it in nitrogen, phosphates and etc.

Wonderful are the possibilities of the Florida everglades. The land companies are selling thousands of acres of this land now before the water is off. I hardly know which is better—Pecos Valley without water or everglades with much water.

One mile from the canal on the lake we saw our only habitation on the lake, for you must know we were nearly out of civilization and not far from the Indians. At that point two lone men had an experimental farm.

There were growing for the vision of the land-hungry investor, sugar-cane of great height, banana grove laden with half grown fruit, peas, beans, radishes, cabbage, potatoes and tomatoes; in all stages of growth, and this seventeenth of January. It looked good to "we"uns as they say here and we would like to have "toted" some home to our friends.

Next we were to explore the great lake. When I was a teacher in Rush county fifty years ago the boys and girls learned of this lake with its snakes and alligators, we did not know it was the largest inland fresh-water lake in the United States except Lake Michigan. It is sixty-five miles wide and eighty long and contains four islands in the southern half. We cruised around between these and explored the shores of the lake. On the south and west there is a growth of small trees called cusc-tard-apples, all covered with wild morning-glories—a beautiful sight in blossom.

On the north an occasional cypress tree towers above the saw-grass, while the east shore is a sandy beach with palms, rubber trees, cypress and pine trees.

Once in a while a wild hog would run out on the shore to look at us as we passed.

Farther back in the timber there are plenty of deer the hunters find. We carried a shot gun and a rifle and found much sport shooting at the ducks, water turkeys, alligators and snakes. Many of these were victims of our Spanish war chef. We came upon several fishing camps and saw the trotlines stretching far out into the lake with the captive fish bobbing them up and down.

The fish are packed in ice in small boats, brought to Ft. Myers, and shipped to the north. We were told the average shipment being thirty tons per week during the six months' season. There are a great variety but the black bass are considered the finest.

Our return trip was marked by fishing and shooting with good luck. The only stop made was at the great Floweree grove which is on the Caloosahatchee River. It contains 520 acres. Mr. Floweree, a Montana cattle millionaire and owner of this large grove has a palatial winter home in Ft. Myers. A few of the trees of this grove are said to be almost eighty years old.

The product last year of grape fruit, oranges and tangerines, sold for $225,000.

The yield this year is not so great on account of the great storm in October which blew off great quantities of the fruit. We had permission to help ourselves and we did "sure nuff" as the darkeys say.

If all the people of Rushville and especially the good people of New Salem could instantly be placed in this beautiful grove they would sure think St. Peter was off duty, the Golden Gate wide open and themselves in

Paradise, so great would be the contrast, the birds singing in the trees, the roses in bloom in the garden, the men plowing in their shirt sleeves and the weather so warm it was a pleasure to hunt the shade.

Land along the river with these good groves is valued at $1200 to $2000 per acre. At these high prices the investor claims that he makes 20 to 30 per cent on his investments.

Returning to Ft. Myers our three days water-trip was at an end—our only regret being that our friends were not along with us to enjoy the novel trip.

Going Back?

There are many evidences that the ending struggle for existence in the crowded centers of population, has begun to think about the green fields of the country and a little farm of his own, where he can spend his later years in independence. Evidences multiply too that a decided change is coming in the mental attitude of the farm youth on the subject of life on the farm. Daily there is growing an appreciation of the dignity of farming as a profession.

In preparation for a life in the country thousands of parents are sending their sons to various agricultural colleges, and an increasing number of these students are from the cities. The farmers themselves in many localities are taking up the short term scientific courses provided by numerous colleges. The United States Government through its Reclamation Service is providing the land, and the Department of Agriculture, the States in their experimental stations, the railroads with their lecture cars and exhibits, are all encouraging the back to the farm movement.

Throughout the land there are thousands of people now residing in the cities and towns who are studying farming with a view ultimately of removing to the country. Today they are simply book farmers, yet it is surprising how quickly these same people make good when they go into the game in real earnest.

On many of the irrigation projects of the Government the managers report that a surprisingly large number of city bred folks have taken up farms. A crop census of the farms furnishes reasonable evidence that the city fellow is more than holding his own and in some instances has been more successful than many of the experienced farmers. These successes are not exceptional. The reports show a very small percentage of failures on the part of settlers of all classes. This fact when taken in connection with the statistics of the commercial agencies which show from 50 to 75 per cent of failures in all other professions, should tend to accelerate and encourage greatly the much desired efflux from the city to the country.

The farms of the Government are contributing a new crop of citizenship. In its efforts to promote the building of homes in a region long regarded as worthless, the Reclamation Service at Washington, D. C., is receiving the hearty co-operation of the press of the entire country.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel, a Democratic paper from away back, thinks the passing of the local option measure by the legislature a big mistake. It says:

"The Democratic party is doing neither itself nor Indiana any good by repeal of the county option law. The people in the seventy counties that have voted 'dry' knew what they were voting for when they voted and under another election would vote the same way but with greater heartiness and in larger majority. The business in every Indiana city that has banished saloons has been made better by that fact. The moral conditions are better and people are in general happier more contented and with better reason for being so than ever they had."

President Fallieres of France now gets $750,000 a year. The job's worth it, in a country where they use high officials for a target in place of clay pigeons.

Buying a Newspaper.

The testimony by Business Manager Dodsworth of the New York Journal of Commerce of alleged attempts to buy that newspaper's support by subsidy interests, by the Spanish government and others, is a striking testimony to newspaper power.

It is sometimes said, in these days of impersonal journalism, that newspaper influence has waned. Advertisers and politicians, it is said, muzzle the editor's teeth.

And yet when testimony comes along indicating that a single newspaper's silence is worth $100,000 to some one, it looks as if the newspaper press was still the greatest creator of public sentiment, even if the editorials are written in some glib parlor by a man whose picture never gets into print.

When an intelligent man writes down his honest thought, be he right or wrong, and if he bases his argument on facts of practical men's experience, his voice will loom high above the modern tumult of misinformation and unworkable theory.

At present the National Progressive Republican League is attracting a great deal of attention. It is stated that this organization is unfriendly to President Taft. It is reported that the league will establish headquarters at Indianapolis, and those two eminent and notorious kickers, Foulke and Swift, have already pre-empted the organization leadership.

If elections are to be bought as they have been in Illinois and Ohio, why not advertise for proposals for the right to hold office, and sell to the highest bidder, saving the people the cost of elections?

ISSUE RULES TO PROTECT PUBLIC

Indiana Railroad Commission Sets

Out Qualifications For Inter-urban Crews.

SENDS OUT LONG CIRCULAR

Reasonable Time Will be Given Companies in Which to Install

Block Signal.

The obtaining of better railroad men as motormen and conductors, the relief of motormen, division superintendents and dispatchers from all duties except those pertaining to train operations, the use of the double system of dispatching, the elimination of all obstructions to the sight at curves and the placing of block signal systems are formal recommendations made to interurban companies by the railroad commission, after an investigation of several months, with a view to preventing, in the future, such interurban accidents as occurred in September and October last year.

A circular setting forth the commission's recommendations has been issued. Several conferences with the interurban men have been held and the rules recommended are those on which the State railroad commissioners and the interurban men agree.

It is recommended that each company shall obtain and employ better railroad men for motormen and conductors, taking such steps as are necessary to get capable and fit men and to keep them in the service. Applicants for positions as motormen and conductors shall not be employed until their former records have been carefully investigated, or until all letters of reference and recommendation have been carefully considered. All motormen hereafter employed, it is said by the commission, shall have at least one year's experience in train service on steam or interurban railroads. This rule shall not be varied from unless, in the judgment of the manager of the interurban company, it would be best for the service to employ a man who has not had one year's experience in train service. And any such employment, with the reasons therefor, shall be reported to the commission within sixty days from the date of the employment. If the commission is of the opinion that such a man should not be employed, the interurban company shall dispense with his services until such a time as he may have gained the necessary experience.

Motormen shall be relieved from all duties in connection with baggage and express matter, except at stations and conductors and agents shall give to the motorman at stations all the assistance possible, so as not to require from the motorman any attention to baggage and express except while the car is at the station, says the commission. Generally, it is recommended, no other duties shall be assigned to the motorman except the operation of the car. Separate compartments shall be provided for the motormen, so that their exclusive attention may be given to operating the cars and so that their attention may not be diverted by the conversation of passengers or other persons. When a trailer or additional car for carrying passengers is attached to the motor car, a third man shall be put on to assist, and to work under the direction of the conductor.

Division superintendents and trainmasters, by these being meant those immediately in charge of trainmen, shall not be burdened with duties other than those pertaining to train operation, including the supervision of agents. Train dispatchers, it is stated, shall not be required to handle interlocking plants, or to perform other duties than those pertaining to the dispatching of trains.

The interurban companies, says the commission, shall proceed to eliminate obstructions to sight at curves, where the view is seriously obstructed, and until this is done, the companies, on order of the commission, may be required to reduce the speed of cars to a speed limit not exceeding fifteen miles an hour at obstructed curves.

A double system of dispatching, enforcement of which is required by the commission, provides that the motorman or conductor shall take the order from the dispatcher, without abbreviation as given, with a carbon copy. The member of the crew taking the order must repeat it to the dispatcher. The member of the crew who has not taken the order also must repeat it to the dispatcher before the order is completed.

A reasonable time will be given the companies in which to put in block signal systems. It is explained that a committee, consisting of the block signal expert of the commission, and also including representatives of interurbans and operators, has now under consideration the matter of the best block system to be used and adopted on the interurban roads of the State. A final report on the subject will be made to the commission February 24.

AMUSEMENTS

"His Wife's Sweethearts" is the subject of the Biograph film for tonight at the Palace theater. It is a comedy picture dealing with several cases of mistaken identity. Another picture will be shown entitled, "After the Ball." It is the story of a masque ball and its after effect. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand offers a fine Than-houser film tonight entitled "The Childhood of Jack Harkaway." Jack was just a real boy, with his share of his good points. As such, he attracts the many who like humor and youth in their entertainment and who care for nothing so much in the film as an old-fashioned story well done. Earl Robertson will sing "Has Anybody Got a Kiss to Spare." Also a complete change in "Talking Pictures."

The Vaudet will offer a big double program for its Saturday night's patrons that is of unusual merit. The big Bison feature film, "Red Wing and the White Girl" is a western story of Indian life which is said to be intensely interesting. The Than-houser film, "Love and Law" is a drama, taking for its plot a story of modern times. As a special attraction, the management will offer a high class vaudeville attraction, the first three days of next week when Kennedy and Udell, will appear. They are known especially for their "Girl and the Rube" act.

JIMMY VALENTINE, WARDEN HANDLER AND ROSE LANE.

The two thieves, having no opportunity to do better, hastily concealed themselves behind the portieres.

Valentine, very much disturbed, made an effort to calm himself. He seated himself beside a convenient table. He picked up a magazine and began to peruse its pages in seemingly unconcerned fashion.

"Hello, Jimmy!"

With these words Detective George Doyle entered the room. Garmented in the latest cut of fashionable clothing, panama hat and patent leather ties with batwing laces, he appeared the dilettante, the man about town, rather than the tracker of desperate men—the man of leisure, every inch of him, an uninitiated observer would have pardonably judged not only from his attire, but also from his debonaire, blasé manner. Any one describing Doyle as the man who broke up the "Five Points" gang and the "Whyo" gang in New York city would have been laughed at for his folly, yet such was his record. His work in scattering the troupes of election and primary day "floaters" and "repeaters" in some of the most disreputable districts was equally meritorious.

And yet Doyle had his other side. He was growing fond of the easy life that came from having a staff of "stool pigeons" to do his work for him.

Jimmy Valentine turned his head slightly to answer Doyle, who, he well knew, came on no errand that would benefit a released prisoner.

"How are you, Doyle?" he replied indifferently.

Doyle's shifting, farsailing eyes, however, caught the nervous twitching of Valentine's fingers as they ran over the edges of the magazine.

"You're perfectly innocent now, I hear," went on Doyle, a sarcastic note coming into his voice.

"Perfectly." Valentine's voice was as even as though conversing with his most intimate friend.

"So you told the governor?" commented the detective.

"Oh, yes."

"I've seen the governor too."

"He didn't have much to do this morning, did he?" humorously.

"Very pretty, Jimmy. Let me ask you a question. Do you think I would be your friend if I could?"

"Do you think so yourself?"

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

Hargrove and Mullin, Druggists.

"Yes, if you were willing to exchange the ordinary courtesies between friends."

"Meaning exactly what?"

"Favors. Now, I'll do the first one." He seated himself opposite the ex-convict.

"Thank you," in gay mood.

"Sarcasm won't win you anything with me, Jimmy. I said I'd do you a favor."

"What is it?" Valentine began to inspect his visitor anxiously.

The detective paused momentarily. Then he said deliberately:

"I'll forget—that job—you did—at—Springfield—three—years—ago."

The detective leaned back in his chair, inserted his thumbs in the armholes of his waistcoat and gazed fixedly at Jimmy Valentine.

The eyes of the man addressed became directed at the cover of the magazine he still held, but only for an instant. He shot a defiant glare at Doyle.

"I was never in Springfield in my life," he said indignantly.

"Which Springfield?" asked Doyle significantly.

"No Springfield."

"You dodge it nicely."

"I don't see how."

"Now, which Springfield did I think you were going to say?"

"I have no idea."

"Good again. Well, I'll tell you," continued Doyle. "I meant Springfield, Mass."

Valentine raised his brows doubtfully, innocently.

"I don't think I was ever in the state of Massachusetts."

"I can prove you were in Springfield, Mass., the night the safe in the savings bank was grabbed."

"Oh, no, you can't."

"Believe me, Jimmy, I can. The witness may be a bit disreputable, but I can prove it."

"You can job me, you mean. You can get fake witnesses?" Valentine asked excitedly.

"I can send you for five at least, my boy."

"But you won't if I do you a favor?"

"You are a very good guesser, James."

"Well?"

"I want Avery."

"Avery?"

"Bill Avery, who finished a nine year stretch a month ago and joined up with your old friend Red Flanagan."

Bill Avery, concealed behind the portieres with Red, gave a violent start as he heard Doyle's words. Red had all he could do to quiet him. The aged thief, however, managed to draw a .38 caliber revolver from a draw pocket in his coat—quicker to get at than the hip pocket, and then this arrangement enables a man to stand with a hand carelessly thrust into a pocket and to discharge the pistol through the coat when dire emergency threatens.

"Curse him!" he whispered to Red. "I told him I'd get him if he turned square, and when Doyle goes I'll bore him through the mouth and into his brain."

"Serve him right!" hissed Red. "And two chances for a slick getaway. No guy can go on the square without goin' crooked with his pals."

CHAPTER VIII.
LITTLE knowing of the serious conspiracy that was forming but a few yards away behind the thick velvet curtains, Valentine gave verbal and mental battle to the detective. Already he was beginning to see that the way of the transgressor was hard not only while he was in the legal toils, but also after.

TEN THOUSAND DRUGGISTS

Unite in Their Opinion Regarding a Certain Medicine.

Druggists should know better than any one else the value of every medicine.

Therefore, when over ten thousand recommend Vinol, the cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, over their own signatures as the greatest tonic reconstructor and strength creator—and offer to return the purchase money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction,—it must indicate that Vinol is a pretty reliable medicine.

We could publish columns of such testimony as the following:

C. A. Potterfield, the leading druggist of Charleston, W. Va., says he used Vinol for every member of his family and has never been disappointed with the results.

Mr. J. F. Bradley, druggist, of New Brunswick, N. J., says, "Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine. He has proved it from personal experience."

The many years that Vinol has been on the market has served to strengthen its popularity, and proved by continued tests that it will do all that is claimed for it.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not build up your strength and give you an added interest in life. F. B. Johnson & Co., Druggists, Rusuhville, Ind.

er he became free and supposedly in a position to build a new life if he so desired. But Jimmy Valentine was only at the beginning of a knowledge of the conditions and trials and setbacks he must face, for so long as men make laws and administer them so long will the guilty and the innocent as well suffer and endure, sometimes justly and sometimes unjustly. This also is a law of life.

Valentine went on to insist that he didn't know where Avery was, hadn't seen him since his release from Sing Sing, was glad of it, didn't care

"THAT'S A LIE! YOU KNOW WHERE HE IS," where he was and didn't purpose to care. Of all this he was absolutely sure.

"Well," stated Doyle, "he held up a citizen just three days after he got out, and I want him."

"And I'm to tell you where he is and you will send him up for highway robbery?" questioned Valentine.

"The man he stuck up may die."

"And you expect me to hunt him up and deliver him to you?"

"And you are going to. That's the odd part of it. And possibly I'll make an eyewitness out of you."

"It would be odd if I sent Avery away for life. It would indeed!"

"Then I'll slough you for that Springfield job." Doyle rose abruptly. "Then you may as well do it now," said the other defiantly.

"No hurry. I've got a little work on the case yet, and I'll find you when I want you." Doyle's grin showed his teeth.

"I'm not going to run away."

"Look here, Valentine, this Avery isn't worth this. He's as wrong as ever lived. He'll cross you or any one else. I should think when a bum resorts to blackjacking an old man that would put him out of your class."

"I don't know where he is. I don't know that he did blackjack anybody, and I wouldn't know him if I saw him."

"That's your spiel, eh?"

"That's the truth." Valentine rose as though to end the distasteful interview.

"That's a lie! You know where he is better than any one. If you don't Red does, and I want him. One month to turn him up, and if you don't I go after you, and if I go after you I get you."

"Well, get me."

"I will. It will take a little time—a year, perhaps ten—but as long as we're both alive I'm after you. Good day."

Doyle strode angrily away. As the broad shouldered form of the "headquarters man" disappeared Valentine stood gazing reflectively after him. His back was turned to the portieres. Bill Avery, seeing his chance, crept stealthily out. In his right hand gleamed the barrel and the chamber of his .38 bulldog. He felt secure. He had the versatile Red to aid in the necessary getaway. The hotel corridors were opportunely deserted and the noise of the elevator and of the street cars outside would dull the sound of the bulldog's bark.

INVITES INVESTIGATION

Cincinnati Mission Worker, Charged With Wife Murder, Gave Himself Up.

Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—Oliver P. Smith, a mission worker, wanted for the alleged murder of his wife at Cincinnati last Tuesday night, walked into the captain's office at the Indianapolis police station with the inquiry: "Are you looking for a Smith from Cincinnati—a murderer? I'm Smith." Captain Kruger turned Smith over to the detective department and he was slated as a fugitive. If verification of his own statement as to his identity were needed it is to be had in dispatches from the Cincinnati police. He answers the description. He denies killing his wife, but will be returned to Cincinnati to face a charge of first degree murder. According to his statement he knew nothing of the death of his wife until he read of it in the newspapers. He says he believes Mrs. Smith committed suicide.

Smith's theory that his wife may have committed suicide seems absurd in the light of information contained in dispatches from Cincinnati. The body of the woman was found with the skull crushed, and death had resulted from heavy blows. The police have charged Smith with the murder chiefly as a result of his unexpected disappearance. The body was found some time Wednesday, and death had occurred hours before. The face was badly crushed, and evidence plainly showed that the woman had been beaten to death.

ADMIRAL BARRY HAS GIVEN UP HIGH POST

He Has Resigned "for the Good of the Service."

Washington, Jan. 28.—"For the good of the service," Rear Admiral Edward B. Barry, former commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, has resigned. His resignation was accepted, to take effect at once. The action was taken with the approval of President Taft. His resignation will completely separate him from the naval service and he will draw no pay from the government.

The navy department first learned of the accusation against Admiral Barry several weeks ago, following his request for voluntary retirement. When newspaper reports from San Francisco of the real facts of the case were received at the department, Secretary Meyer telegraphed for a complete report. In the meantime Admiral Barry's request for retirement had been approved by President Taft.

Last Monday the official report from the officers of the West Virginia making charges against him was received at the department. Barry had declined to forward the report, and the officers of the flagship sent it to Washington upon their own responsibility.

As soon as the report was received Secretary Meyer laid the case before President Taft. The result of his consideration of the case was that it was decided to permit Admiral Barry to resign "for the good of the service."

Admiral Barry's resignation will remove him entirely from the naval service. He will lose his retired pay of $4,500 and his title. Henceforth he will be plain Mr. Barry.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Senator Cummins made an address in the senate opposing Senator Lorimer's right to a seat in that body.

Chicago is threatened with a wage strike of 8,000 streetcar men, meaning a tie-up of all the surface lines in the city.

No taxes will be levied in Farmington, Me., next year, the expenses of the municipality to be met by the surplus earnings of the waterworks system.

Declaring that the man had been the cause of domestic difficulty in his home, James R. Wood of McCordsville shot and fatally wounded Jasper Bucy of Fortville in an Indianapolis saloon.

Champion Jack Johnson announces that he will fight Al Kaufman for the world's heavyweight title within four weeks' time and has posted $10,000 in Pittsburgh to show he means what he says.

Harry Whitney, famous New Haven sportsman and Arctic traveler, and Captain Bartlett will sail from New York early in February in an attempt to reach the south pole. They expect to be gone two years.

Luke Lea, who has just been elected United States senator for Tennessee, will be the youngest member of the senate. He is thirty-two years old. Mr. Lea is editor of the Nashville Tennessean.

The Spanish newspapers are giving much space to dispatches from the United States describing the investigations incident to the raising of the wreck of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor.

All the officers and crew who survived the loss of the Haytian gunboat Liberte last October have been convicted by a court martial and sentenced to death. The prisoners were found guilty of mutiny.

Some of the Democrats in the senate are growing suspicious of the disposition of senate leaders to defer action on all the important legislation before that body, believing it to be a deliberate purpose to force an extra session.

Elusive Witness Against See Still In Hiding.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Hazel Danner, the elusive witness against Evelyn Arthur See, "revealer of the absolute life," succeeded in evading the government authorities.

W. C. Dannenberger, one of Chief De Woody's subordinates, and John F. Rosen, counsel for George E. Danner, father of the girl, went to Lafayette, Ind., and followed a trail through various nearby towns without success.

When last seen she agreed to appear in the municipal court and tell what she knew of See's practices. But she broke every engagement her father or lawyer made for her.

DAY OF RESPITE IN LEGISLATURE

Both Houses Enjoying a Weekend Holiday.

RAPID PROGRESS BEING MADE

Though the Flood of New Bills Seems Never Ceasing, 627 Separate Measures Now Being Before the Assembly, Eliminative Process Continues Active and Important Measures Are Being Taken Up in Good Order.

Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—The members of the general assembly yesterday having adjourned until Monday afternoon, Indiana legislative halls are silent and deserted today. One committee, however, has not been relieved by the recess, the house committee on state prison employing the brief recess to make a trip of inspection of the institution at Michigan City.

In the house yesterday thirty-one new bills were introduced, making 364 separate measures which have been poured into the hopper in that body.
Keegan's child labor bill was reported by the committee on labor. Following the agreement generally understood after the Democratic caucus, the three reports already compiled were presented. The majority report, signed by Masselink, Keegan, Hammond and A. Johnson, recommended the bill for passage. The next report, signed by Benz, Ault and Moran, recommended that the bill be indefinitely postponed, while the third, signed by Rupel and Eward, favored the passage of the bill with age, hour and night work amendments. The bill was sent to the printer and probably will come up for second reading early next week.

The committee on organization of courts killed the Gary court bill, and the Gibson and Warrick court bill, but recommended for passage the bill introduced by Van Horn to give Hammond two additional superior judges.

Custodian Bill Favored.

Spencer's bill providing that the governor shall appoint a statehouse custodian, and fixing salaries and duties, was reported favorably. All of Buennagel's fish and game association bills were reported favorably with the exception of the one calling for the printing of 10,000 copies of the commissioner's report, which was killed.
The bill raising the salary of the commissioner from $1,200 to $4,000 was recommended with the amendment that the salary be $3,000. The locomotive boiler inspection bill was recommended with amendments.

Representative Voris of Montgomery county, introduced a bill which if it becomes a law will extend the Indianapolis plan of electing city councilmen to all the cities of the state. For first and second class cities it provides for nine councilmen, no more than six of whom shall be of one political party.
In all other cities it provides for six councilmen, no more than four of whom shall be of one political party.

An additional provision of the bill is that in all cities it does away with the metropolitan police law, which was reserved in 1909 for certain cities with the appointing power in the hands of the mayor.

Report on Soldiers' Bill.

In the senate nine new bills were introduced, making 263 all told in that body. Among the bills passed was one providing for the settlement by school-book depositories with book companies every ninety days.

As the committee on military affairs made a divided report on Senator Strange's bill giving preference to former United States soldiers and marines in appointments under the state the consideration of the bill was made a special order of business for Jan. 31 at 11 o'clock a. m. Senator Strange's bill, giving towns, cities, counties or corporations organized for the purpose the right of eminent domain for acquiring property for historic purposes, was reported favorably and the report was approved.

The bill increasing the salaries of county commissioners in Marion county from $2,200 to $3,000 a year; in Allen county from $1,200 to $2,400 a year; in Lake county from $600 to $1,500; in St. Joseph county from $750 to $1,500, and in Vigo county from $900 to $1,500, which failed to pass in the senate Thursday for lack of a constitutional majority, was called up again yesterday and "squeezed" through the senate by exactly the necessary number of votes. The vote Thursday stood 25 ayes and 24 noes. Yesterday it stood 26 ayes and 20 noes, Hanna and Powers, who had previously voted against the bill, switching over to its support. Hanna explained that he did so because Vanderburg county pays its commissioners $1,500 a year.

A unanimous report of the senate committee on public morals favoring the passage of the bill introduced by Senator Proctor for the regulation of the liquor traffic was made. The committee's report was accepted without any attempt having been made to amend the bill. Senator Fleming's bill for the regulation of the liquor traffic, which has been in the hands of the committee for some time, was not reported.

Following a family quarrel, John Alfrey, aged thirty-one, of Logansport, shot his wife and then turned the pistol on himself. Both will probably die.

E. H. GREEN
Son of World's Richest Woman Is Looking After Her Interests.

New York, Jan. 28.—Edward H. R.
Green, son of Mrs. Hetty Green, says that plans are being formed to conduct the various enterprises in which the family is interested from headquarters in New York, and that a trust company with a good-sized capital is likely to be formed and backed by the Green interests. He gave out no details other than that the company will be organized under the laws of New York state.

CONGRESS RUNNING AROUND IN CIRCLES

Bewildered By Taft's Reciprocity Program.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Without exaggeration, the effect upon congress of the administration's reciprocity agreement with Canada may be described as shocking. Standpat Republicans have been dazed at this proposed inroad upon the dear old protection principle, while the Republican brethren from the great north-west, who have been crying for a downward revision of the tariff and a relief from the high cost of living, are raising their hands in horror and trying to explain that they have not meant tariff reductions of this character. The Democrats are about the only ones who can tell you at present just how they stand on the proposed agreement.
With a few exceptions they seem to be pleased with it and will support it.

The disorganization of the Republicans over the agreement makes it impossible to say with any degree of certainty at this time what its fate will be in congress. The representatives and senators from nearly every state are themselves between two fires—the one coming from the interests that fear the effect of the agreement on their products, and the other from that almost mythical personage, the ultimate consumer.

Opponents of the agreement acknowledge that the opposition is at its maximum strength now and that the swing of sentiment within the next week will be strongly in favor of the proposed legislation. They acknowledge that the average American is going to grab at any proposition which writes the word "free" over foodstuff items in the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, and that strong pressure is going to be brought to bear on congress from this source.

Administration leaders who attempted to size up the situation, while admitting the impossibility of making any definite prediction, gave it as their opinion that the agreement would be accepted by the house but will have a rocky road in the senate.

MAKING A CLEANING

Grand Jury at Fort Wayne Pushes Crusade Against Vice.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Jan. 28.—The grand jury has reported on its investigation of the relations of the Fort Wayne police department with the underworld. One hundred and five true bills have been found, among them one against Chief of Police B. H. Elliott for accepting a bribe, and another against Charles Clark, keeper of a notorious resort, for giving a bribe. Many other indictments are against women for conducting resorts.

The Arlington hotel, for two generations under different names a plague resort in the city, will be closed at once. Charles Clark, its proprietor, surrendered his saloon licenses. Benjamin Wartell, a jeweler and pawn-broker, is indicted and under arrest on perjury charges growing out of his part in a conspiracy to conceal the evidence that Police Chief Elliott received a diamond as a gift from Clark.
Other indictments will be made known as fast as arrests can be made. Twenty owners of property are indicted for renting houses for immoral purposes.

Accused of Destroying Record.
Decatur, Ind., Jan. 28.—C. O. France of Columbia City, former mayor of Decatur, has been placed under $1,200 bonds on indictments charging that he secreted or destroyed a public record and failed to make full entry on his docket as city judge. France gave bond.

STANDARD OIL CHARGES LIBEL

At Last Great Corporation Goes To Court for Defense.

A MAGAZINE THE DEFENDANT

Alleging That an Article Published by the Broadway Magazine Company Was Malicious, Libelous and Defamatory, the Oil People Have Sued the Magazine Company and Cleveland Moffett For $350,000.

New York, Jan. 28.—As John D.
Archbold once pointed out in a magazine article the Standard Oil company has had a lot of unpleasant things said about it one time and another, but until now it has never taken its troubles to court. Summonses have been obtained in the United States circuit court in two suits for heavy damages brought by the Standard Oil company against the Broadway Magazine company, publishers of Hampton's Magazine, and Cleveland Moffett, author of the alleged libelous article which caused the octopus to turn.

It seems that Standard Oil was willing to worry along under all the hard names that were placed before and after its corporate title by magazine writers until Mr. Moffett, in an article in the current Hampton's headed "Cassidy and the Food Poisoners," wrote that Standard Oil had secured a monopoly of the glucose sugar industry and was making the product more attractive to the eye by whitening it by the use of sulphites. Mr. Moffett pointed out that glucose is used in candy making and added that the agents of Standard Oil in eastern Pennsylvania and lower New Jersey "had been arrested, brought into court, branded as deliberate poisoners of little children."

That sentence about the poisoning of little children hurt, and the smarting of the wound was not soothed any by the stream of clippings from the article which began to come in every mail to the Standard Oil office at 26 Broadway. It is said that copies of the article were also received by many of the officers of the concern and that the senders had taken care to mark the quotation. The fact that the corporation is now fighting in the courts for the right to exist made the attack, as a representative of the company said, "unfortunate at this time." The result was that the corporation broke its rule and began suit for $250,000 against Hampton's and for $100,000 against Cleveland Moffett.

Before starting the suit Martin Carey, attorney for the company, and J. L. C. Clarke, its press representative, called on Hampton's to retract.
They denied that Standard Oil is interested in glucose, or that the men referred to in Mr. Moffett's article as having been "branded as deliberate poisoners of little children" were representatives of Standard Oil. Mr. Morfett was present when the Standard Oil representatives made the demand, and after consulting with him, Benjamin B. Hampton, editor of the magazine, decided to stand pat.

The article called "Cassidy and the Food Poisoners" deals with the campaign for the enforcement of pure food laws made by Harry P. Cassidy, a food inspector in Philadelphia.

THEY QUIETED DOWN

Storm Against John Mitchell in Min-ners' Convention Subsided.

Columbus, O., Jan. 28.—By a vote of 497 to 369 the substitute offered to the motion condemning the National Civic Federation as opposed to the interests of organized labor was adopted by the United Mine Workers of America. This disposes of the original motion, which called for the condemnation of the federation and the withdrawal of all members of the United Mine Workers from that organization, and also the minority report which provided that no action regarding the Civic Federation be taken.
The original motion was generally understood to be a slap at John Mitchell, former president of the United Mine Workers, who is now prominently connected with the Civic Federation.

Editors Elect Officers.

Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—Just before adjournment yesterday afternoon the Indiana Republican Editorial association elected the following officers:
President, J. W. Cockrum, Oakland City; first vice president, Jesse Pierce, Clinton; second vice president, Charles J. Rabb, Michigan City; executive committee, J. W. Cockrum, George B.
Lockwood, Arthur R. Keesling of Logansport, and Isaac T. Brown of Columbus; secretary-treasurer, Leo K.
Fesler of Indianapolis.

It Required Twelve Ballots.

Indianapolis, Jan. 28.—Guy C. Hanna of Terre Haute, head of the training school department of the Indiana state normal school, was chosen to succeed E. E. York, resigned, as superintendent of the Indiana boys' school at Plainfield. Eleven ballots were necessary. There were twenty-nine applicants for the place.

There were no important changes in the ninth vote in the New York senatorial contest, the insurgents merely redistributing their strength.

HAVE REFUSED SHIPMENT

Bliss & Cowing Canceled Order For Which Suit is Filed.

The shipment of shoes, for the payment of which the Mauss Shoe Manufacturing company filed suit against Bliss & Cowing, demanding $175 in the circuit court yesterday, is now lying in the freight depot here and has been refused by the local firm. They ordered the shoes, according to Will Bliss, and were allowed a certain time in which they could cancel, if they so desired. Since they had had considerable trouble with the shoes, which the company manufactured, the firm saw fit to cancel the order within the allowed time, but the company shipped them anyway. They have refused to accept them and believe that they are not expected to pay the bill.

From 1910 to 2000, inclusive, Easter will fall twenty times within March and seventy-one times in April.

The Daily Republican today publishes on page three one of the most popular songs which has yet appeared as a weekly feature, "The Luncheon Trio," as is now being sung in Charles Dillingham's singing and dancing musical success, "The Echo" at the Globe theater in New York City. It is decidedly "ahead of the times" for Rushville people as the show nor the song will be heard in Indiana next year. The song is the pronounced "hit" of the show.

PUPILS ARE REMEMBERED

Truant Officer Presents the Orange School Children With Gifts.

The nine pupils in the fourth grade of the Orange graded school, were recipients recently each of a nice little remembrance from A. J. Miller, the truant officer, for letters which they had written for his inspection, says the Connersville Examiner.

One pupil out of the nine, who is eleven years of age, and has not missed a single day this year, wrote his letter without a misspelled word and received the reward that had been offered by Mr. Miller. Mr. Miller also generously remembered the other members of the class for their work, which was all good for pupils of that grade.
